

Shantelle Jackson and Antonio Brown, dancers

Co-Grand Prize Winners of the Jean L. Pettit Memorial Music Scholarship Competition 2002

Shantelle and Antonio were both students of Cleveland School of the Arts when they won the competition. Their modern dance interpretations stunned and thrilled the Cleveland POPS audience, which gave them thunderous applause and standing ovations.

Shantelle went on to study dance at Ohio University's College of Fine Arts, where she won awards and grants to continue her education

Antonio has now graduated from Julliard and is a member of the Bill T. Jones / Arnie Zanes Dance Company in New York City.
